ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The major initiative of the BCHC is to move from a troubled to high-performing housing commission as soon as possible. A variety of strategies will be applied, including reduction of costs through benefit reduction, replacing high paid staff with less cost staff and reallocation of costs where possible. While these measures are implemented, the show must go on. Therefore, all departments will be analyzed, and if necessary reorganized, for efficiency and compliance with regulations. Maintenance will be reorganized and present staff will be replaced with proven highly motivated individuals who “give a damn” and take pride in their work. Staff will be expected to settle for nothing less than excellence in their performance. Staff will be sent to much needed training. MASS and PASS indications will be reviewed and staff made aware of the importance of meeting and beating the clock. A turn over rate of 1-3 days on a one bedroom and 3-5 days on a house will be expected. Out sourced work will be taken in house where necessary to reduce costs. Financial management will be completely reorganized to ensure accurate reporting of costs and fair allocation of costs. The ACOP and ADMIN plans will be completely redone and a very comprehensive Maintenance Plan developed. For now, appliances, furnaces, and hot water heaters will be replaced as they fail. Maintenance will be equipped and trained so that they may function more efficiently. When apartments or houses turn over, they will be completely renovated in order to continue to be very marketable. A standard of “good enough for them” will no longer be the norm. An energy audit needs to be done this year. It is anticipated that $37,000 of CFP will be needed in 2006-2007 in order to accomplish goals set.
